REPORT FROM
EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Kenneth Kato, Executive Officer, welcomed Cubberley Middle School which will be housed temporarily at Monroe. Cassandra Richards, Cubberley Principal, and other Cubberley staff have started preparing for school this week.

Greggory Robinson, Associate Personnel Analyst, reported the Recruitment and Testing currently has forty (40) open recruitments. CODESP has provided some Unit entry level exams, such as the Custodian exam. Mr. Robinson along with Maria Braunstein, Personnel Analyst, continue to develop the bulk of the examination content. The Custodian recruitment closed with one hundred and thirty (130) applications received. Mr. Robinson recognized the Recruitment and Testing team who produced twenty (20) eligibility lists since June amidst a pandemic and showed gratitude for all their hard work. Mr. Robinson mentioned that there are two (2) Intermediate Office Assistant – Bilingual Spanish eligibility lists to be approved on the agenda. This is due to the combination of the Intermediate Office Assistant and Intermediate Office Assistant – Schools classification.

Jesus Rios Jr., Employment Services Supervisor, reported the Certification Unit has responded to phone calls as Principals and Office Staff return to sites next week. Certification received multiple hourly elections from school sites in preparation for the start of school. Certification is sending out lists to Principals prior to opening to have available upon their return. Mr. Rios praised the use of the new fingerprinting process as it has reduced processing times significantly. The Certification Unit continues to process substitutes to increase the substitute pool before school starts.
